AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of March, 1763,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

INformation having been given to His Majeſty at this Board on the 14th of February laſt, of a Contagious Diſtemper raging amongſt the Horned Cattle in Denmark, and ſome Parts of Germany — His Majeſty judged it neceſſary, for preventing the ſaid Contagion from being brought into theſe Kingdoms by the Hides of ſuch diſtempered Cattle to require and direct, by His Order in Council of that Day's Date, that no Entry ſhould be paſſed for the Hides of Horned Cattle either Raw or Salted, which were then, or might thereafter be brought from the Places aforementioned, either directly, or by the Way of Holland, into any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, until His Majeſty's Pleaſure ſhould be further ſignified.—And whereas His Majeſty hath this Day received Information, that the ſaid Diſtemper hath broke out with great Violence amongſt the Horned Cattle in Sweden, in the Province of Schonen, about Malmoe, and at ſeveral Villages to the North-Eaſtward of Helſenborg;—His Majeſty doth therefore hereby order, with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the Directions contained in the aforementioned Order of Council, for putting a Stop to the paſſing of Entries for Hides coming from Denmark and Germany, be extended to all Raw or Salted Hides coming from any of the Ports belonging to the Kingdom of Sweden into the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.
